

Wine & Spirit Education Trust (WSET®)

The Wine & Spirit Education Trust WSET® is the world's leading provider of qualifications in wines, spirits and sake. Established in 1969 for the UK wine trade, WSET® has since grown to become the global industry leader and international standard in wine and spirit education.

Journey through the world's finest wines and spirits as you acquire in-depth knowledge on the making, tasting and serving of these premium beverages. We are here to proudly offer this internationally recognised WSET® certificate. Taylor's University also provides hospitality professionals and wine enthusiasts the opportunity to learn from WSET® UK-certified professional wine trainers. The WSET® Level III course involves wine tasting of up to 60 varieties to ensure participants gain the authority and confidence needed to make informed decisions in any wine related situations.
